

XPEL Named Exclusive Paint Protection Film, Ceramic Coating, and Window Film Sponsor of The Mercedes-Benz Club of America

SAN ANTONIO, TX (October 28, 2021)—XPEL, Inc. (NASDAQ: XPEL) a global provider of protective films and coatings today announced a multi-year designation as the exclusive paint protection film, ceramic coating, and window film sponsor of the Mercedes-Benz Club of America, Inc.

This new sponsorship is intended to drive increased XPEL brand awareness and usage among the tens of thousands of Mercedes-Benz enthusiasts who proudly participate in club-sponsored activities and events. It will also provide XPEL with significant exposure to members through club-originated membership-only communication channels and content platforms.

“XPEL is thrilled to begin this new journey with the Mercedes-Benz Club of America,” said Robert Bezner, Vice President Brand at XPEL. “Our exclusive sponsorship will create engagement opportunities with the Mercedes-Benz enthusiast community on countless levels.”

XPEL’s paint protection film portfolio includes ULTIMATE PLUS™, ULTIMATE PLUS BLACK™ and STEALTH™. Each film is designed to protect painted surfaces from rock chips, scuffs and scratches. The company’s FUSION PLUS™ ceramic coating line is specially formulated with hydrophobic properties and U/V inhibitors, and is available for professional application to paint, PPF, plastic, trim, glass and upholstery. It’s PRIME™ window film offering includes a wide range of shades offering up to 98% infrared heat rejection and 99% U/V rejection.

“We know that our club members have extremely high expectations when selecting brands and products to protect their vehicles,” said Mike Regennitter, Executive Director of Mercedes-Benz Club of America. “XPEL’s product offering is unrivaled, and with a far-reaching network of trained and certified network of installers, I know our members’ expectations will be exceeded when they select XPEL for their next PPF, ceramic coating or window tint installation.”
